WHEREAS, the Charter Ordinance Advisory Board has met and recommended changes to the City's Charter which changes are substantially incorporated herein; now, therefore,

THE CITY OF NEW PORT RICHEY HEREBY ORDAINS:

SECTION I. That an amendment to the City Charter of the City of New Port Richey, that amendment amending the entire Charter with the exception of that part describing the boundaries of the municipality, be proposed to the electors of the City of New Port Richey at a referendum election to be held as part of the City's general election held on April 11, 1995 as said amended Charter more specifically sets forth in Section 2 hereunder. The specific ballot title, legal title and language will be in the form as adopted by City Council by Resolution.

SECTION II. That the City Charter of the City of New Port Richey, Florida, be amended in its entirety with the exception of that part describing the boundaries of the said municipality, said amended Charter to read as follows:
ARTICLE I. CREATION AND POWERS OF THE CITY

Sec. 1.01. Creation and Powers.

The City of New Port Richey is created and shall have all powers possible for a City to have under the constitution and laws of the State of Florida as fully and completely as though they were specifically enumerated in this chapter.

Sec. 1.02. Construction.

The powers of the City of New Port Richey shall be construed liberally in favor of the city, and the specific mention of particular powers in the Charter shall not be construed as limiting in any way the general power stated in this article.

Sec. 1.03. Intergovernmental Relations.

The City of New Port Richey may exercise any of its powers or perform any of its functions and may participate in the financing thereof, jointly or in cooperation, by contract or otherwise, with the State of Florida, or any one or more of its agencies or political subdivisions or with any duly incorporated municipality within the State of Florida or any one or more civil divisions or agencies thereof, or the United States or any of its agencies.

ARTICLE II. CITY COUNCIL

Sec. 2.01. General Powers and Duties.

All powers of the City shall be vested in the City Council, except as otherwise provided by law or this Charter, and the City Council shall provide for the exercise thereof and for the performance of all duties and obligations imposed on the City by law.

Sec. 2.02. Composition, Eligibility, Election and Terms.

(a) Composition. There shall be a City Council of five (5) members elected by the qualified voters of the city at large. One (1) member will be elected as Mayor-Councilperson and four (4) will be elected as City Councilpersons.

(b) Eligibility. Any bona fide resident of the City of New Port Richey, Florida who is a duly registered elector of said City and who has resided in the City for at least six (6) months prior to election shall be entitled to qualify as a candidate for elective office in any municipal election.

(c) Election and Terms. During years when the last digit thereof is an odd number, the Mayor-Councilperson Member and one (1) City Councilperson Member shall be elected for a term of two (2) years each, respectively. During years when the last digit thereof is an even odd number, three (3) City Councilpersons Members shall be elected for a term of two (2) years each, respectively.

The terms of all such persons shall commence on the third Tuesday {after-the first-Monday} in the month of January-April immediately succeeding the month of December of the preceding year when such persons were elected to office. All such elected officials shall hold office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified or until their tenure of office has otherwise been terminated in accordance with law; provided however, that the term of the Mayor-Councilperson Member and all City Councilpersons Members, including the incumbent Mayor-Councilperson Member and City Councilpersons Members shall be limited to three (3) consecutive terms respectively.

(d) Definition of Term. For purposes of determining limitations on terms of office as set forth in paragraph 2.02(c), a City Council member will be deemed to have served a full term of office if that council member has served one year and one day of the term in question. It is the intent of this Charter to prohibit any individual from serving more than seven (7) consecutive years as an elected city official.

Sec. 2.02 2.03. Compensation; Expenses.

The City Council may determine the annual salary of City Councilpersons Members by ordinance, but no ordinance increasing such salary shall become effective until the date of commencement of the terms of City Councilpersons Members elected at the next regular election, provided that such election follows the adoption of such ordinance by at least six (6) months. City Councilpersons Members shall receive their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties of office in accordance with Florida Statute and/or approved city regulations. The salary of the City Council shall be established in recognition of the principle that the service of the City Council is a matter of public service and is not actual compensation for services rendered.

Sec. 2.03 2.04. Mayor and Deputy Mayor.

(a) Mayor. At a regular election, a Mayor-Councilperson Member shall be elected for a term of two (2) years. The Mayor shall be a member of the City Council. In addition, he/she shall preside at meetings of the City Council, shall be recognized as the official head of the city government for execution of legal instruments, all ceremonial purposes, and by the Governor for purposes of military laws, but the Mayor shall have no administrative duties.

(b) Deputy Mayor. The City Council shall elect from among its Members a Deputy Mayor who shall act as Mayor during the absence or disability of the Mayor.

Sec. 2.05. Prohibitions.

(a) Holding Other Office. Except where authorized by law, no City Councilperson Member shall hold any other City elected public office or city employment during the term for which he was elected to the City Council and.

No former City Council-person Member shall hold any compensated appointive city office or employment until one (1) year after the expiration of the term for which he was elected to the City Council.
(b) Appointments and Removals. Neither the City Council nor any of its Members shall in any manner dictate the appointment or removal of any city administrative officers or employees whom the City Manager or any of his subordinates are employed to appoint but. The City Council may express its reviews and fully and freely discuss with the City Manager anything pertaining to appointment and removal of such officers and employees.

(c) Interference with Administration. Except for the purpose of inquiries and investigations under section 2.09, the City Council or its members shall deal with city officers and employees who are subject to the direction and supervision of the City Manager solely through the City Manager, and neither the City Council nor its members shall give orders to any such officer or employee, either publicly or privately.

Sec. 2.06. Vacancies; Forfeiture of Office; Filling of Vacancies.

(a) Vacancies. The office of a Councilperson City Council Member shall become vacant upon his death, resignation, removal from office in any manner authorized by law, or forfeiture of his office in any manner authorized by law.

(b) Forfeiture of Office. A Councilperson City Council Member shall forfeit his office if he (1) lacks at any time during his term of office any qualification for the office prescribed by this Charter or by law, (2) violates any express prohibition of this Charter, (3) is convicted of a crime involving a felony or moral turpitude, or (4) fails to attend four (4) two consecutive regular meetings of the Council without being excused by the Council, (5) commits acts of for malfeasance or misfeasance of in office, (6) neglects his of duty, (7) is incapable of performing his duties as a member of city council because of drug or alcohol use drunkenness, (8) is incapable of performing his duties as a member of city council because of his incompetence, (9) has a permanent inability to perform his official duties.

improvements still pending or in process of construction or acquisition.

Sec. 5.06. City Council Action on Budget.

(a) The City Council will take all actions required by Chapter 200 of the Florida Statutes in regard to passage of the city budget and millage.

(b) Amendment before adoption. After the public hearing, the City Council may adopt the budget with or without amendment. In amending the budget, it may add or increase programs or amounts and may delete or decrease any programs or amounts, except expenditures required by law or for debt service or for estimated cash deficit, provided that no amendment to the budget shall increase the authorized expenditures to an amount greater than the total of estimated income and fund balance.

(c) Adoption. The City Council shall adopt the budget on or before the thirtieth day of September of the fiscal year currently ending. If it fails to adopt the budget by this date, the amounts appropriated for current operation for the current fiscal year shall be deemed adopted for the ensuing fiscal year on a month-to-month basis, with all items in it prorated accordingly, until such time as the City Council adopts a budget for the ensuing fiscal year. Adoption of the budget shall constitute appropriations, of the amounts specified therein as expenditures, from the funds indicated, and shall constitute a levy of the property tax therein proposed.

Sec. 5.07. City Council Action on Capital Program.

The City Council shall approve the capital improvement program before holding formal Budget hearings:

(a) Notice and Hearing. The City Council shall publish in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the city the general summary of the capital program and a notice stating: (1) The times and places where copies of the capital program are available for inspection by the public, and

(2) The time and place, not less than two weeks after such publication, for a public hearing on the capital program.

(b) Adoption. The City Council by resolution shall adopt the capital program with or without amendment after the public hearing and on or before the 30th day of September of the current fiscal year.

Sec. 5.08. Public Records.

Copies of the Budget and the Capital program as adopted shall be public records and shall be made available to the public at suitable places in the City.

Sec. 5.09. Amendments After Adoption.

(a) Supplemental Appropriations. If during the fiscal year the City Manager certifies that there are available for appropriation revenues in excess of those estimated in the budget, the City Council by motion resolution may make supplemental appropriations for the year up to the amount of such excess.

(b) Emergency Appropriations. To meet a public emergency affecting life, health, property or the public peace, the City Council may make emergency appropriations. Such Appropriations may be made by emergency ordinance in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.14. To the extent that there are no available unappropriated revenues to meet such appropriations, the City Council, may by such emergency ordinance, authorize the issuance of emergency notes, which may be renewed from time to time. but the emergency notes and renewals of any fiscal year shall be paid not later than the last day of the fiscal year next succeeding that in which the emergency appropriation was made.

(c) Reduction of Appropriations. If at any time during the fiscal year it appears probable to the City Manager that the revenues available, coupled with fund balances, will be insufficient to meet the amount appropriated, he the City Manager shall report to the City Council without delay, indicating the estimated amount of the deficit, any remedial action taken by him and his recommendations as to any other steps to be taken. The City Council shall then take such further action as it deems necessary to prevent or minimize reduce any deficit, and for that purpose it may by motion reduce one (1) or more appropriations.

(d) Transfer of Appropriations. At any time during the fiscal year the City Manager may transfer part or all of any unencumbered appropriation balance among programs within a department and office upon written request by the City Manager, the City Council may by motion transfer part or all of any unencumbered appropriation balance from one (1) department and office to another.

(e) Limitations; Effective Date. No appropriation for debt service may be reduced or transferred, and no appropriation may be reduced below any amount required by law to be appropriated, or by more than the amount of the unencumbered balance thereof. The supplemental and emergency appropriations and reduction or transfer of appropriations authorized by this section may be made effective immediately upon adoption.

Sec. 5-10 5.09. Lapse of Appropriations.

Every appropriation, except an Appropriation for capital expenditure in the Capital Improvement Fund, the Water and Sewer Construction Fund, the Sewer Assessment Fund, or the Street Assessment Fund shall lapse at the close of the fiscal year to the extent that it has not been expended or encumbered. An appropriation for a capital expenditure shall continue in force until the purpose for which it was made has been accomplished or abandoned; expended, revised, or repealed; the purpose of any such appropriation shall be deemed abandoned if three (3) years pass without any disbursement from or encumbrance of the appropriation.
Sec. 5:§ 5.10. Administration of Budget.

(a) Monthly Report and Allotments. At such time as in such a manner, as the City Manager shall specify, each department or office shall be provided with monthly reports as requested, showing allotments of its appropriation. The City Manager may revise such allotments during the year if he deems it desirable and shall revise them to accord with any supplemental, emergency, reduced or transferred appropriations made pursuant to Section 5:§ 5.08. It shall be the duty of each department to review such reports and advise the City Manager of any allotment that is in danger of being exceeded prior to year end, and to recommend a budget amendment to correct such a situation.

(b) Payments---and Obligations---Prohibited. Overspending of Appropriations Prohibited. No payment shall be made or obligation incurred unless sufficient funds are or will be available to cover the claim or meet the obligation when it becomes due and payable. Any authorization of payment or incurring of obligation in violation of this section and any payment so made illegal; such action shall be cause for removal of any officer who knowingly authorized or made such payment or incurred such obligation, and he shall also be liable to the City for any amount so paid.

However, except where prohibited by law, nothing in this Charter shall be construed to prevent the making or authorizing of payments or making of contracts for capital improvements to be financed, wholly or partly, by the issuance of bonds or assessments to prevent the making of any contract or lease providing for payments beyond the end of the fiscal year, provided that such action is made or approved by Ordinance, resolution, or motion of the City Council.

ARTICLE VI. PLANNING*

Sec. 7.08. Action Requiring Ordinance.

The City Council shall prepare an ordinance outlining the provisions of this Charter and the Florida Statutes relating to elections.

ARTICLE VIII. INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM

Sec. 8.01. General Authority.

(a) Initiative. The qualified voters of the city shall have power to propose ordinances to the City Council and, if the City Council fails to adopt an ordinance so proposed by the qualified voters without any changes in substance, then the proposed ordinance shall be adopted or rejected at a city election.
Such power shall not extend
to the budget, or capital
program, or any emergency ordinance, or ordinance relating to appropriation of money or levy of taxes.

(b) Referendum. The qualified voters of the City shall have power to require reconsideration by the City Council of any adopted ordinance
and, if the City Council fails to repeal an ordinance so reconsidered, to--approve--or reject- it - at - a - City - election, provided that then the ordinance shall be approved or rejected at a city election.

Such power shall not extend
to the budget, or capital
program, or any emergency
ordinance, or ordinance relating
to appropriation of money or
levy of taxes.

Sec. 8.02. Commencement of Proceedings; Petitioners' Committee; Affidavit.

Any five (5) qualified voters may commence initiative or referendum proceedings by filing with the City Clerk an affidavit stating they will constitute the Petitioners' Committee, and They will be responsible for circulating the petition and filing it in proper form stating. They will state their names and addresses, and specifying the address to which all notices to the committee are to be sent, and setting out, in full, the proposed initiative ordinance or citing the ordinance sought to be reconsidered.

Promptly after the affidavit of the Petitioners'
Committee is filed the City Clerk shall issue the appropriate Petition blanks to the Petitioners' Committee.

Sec. 8.03. Petitions.

(a) Number of Signatures.
Initiative and referendum petitions must be signed by qualified voters of the city
equal in number to at least ten
(10) percent of the total number of qualified voters registered to vote at the last regular City election.

(b) Form and content. All papers of a petition shall be uniform in size and style and shall be assembled as one (1) instrument for filing. Each signature shall be executed in ink or--indelible--pencil and shall be followed by the address of the person qualified voter signing.

Petitions shall contain, or have attached thereto throughout their circulation, the full text of the ordinance proposed or the ordinance sought to be reconsidered.

(c) Affidavit of Circulator. Each paper of a petition shall have attached to it, when filed, an affidavit executed by the circulator thereof stating:

(1) That he personally circulated the paper and,

(2) The number of signatures thereon, and

(3) That all the signatures were affixed in his presence, and

(4) That he believes them to be the genuine signatures of the persons whose names they purport to be, and

(5) That each signer had an opportunity, before signing, to read the full text of the Ordinance proposed or the ordinance sought to be reconsidered.

(d) Time for Filing Referendum Petitions. Referendum petitions must be filed within thirty (30) days after adoption by the City Council of the ordinance sought to be reconsidered.

Sec. 8.04. Procedure After Filing.

(a) Certificate of City Clerk; Amendment. When the petition is filed, the City Clerk shall submit such petition to the County Supervisor of Elections who shall, within a period of not more than thirty (30) days, determine whether the petition contains the required valid signatures.

The Supervisor of Elections shall be paid by-the-person--or committee--seeking--verification the standard charge for each name check by the persons or committee seeking verification.

Upon completion of verification, the City Clerk shall complete a certificate as to its sufficiency, specifying if it is insufficient, he shall specify the particulars wherein it is defective, and shall promptly send a copy of the certificate to the Petitioners' Committee by certified or registered mail.

A Petition certified insufficient, for lack of the required number of valid signatures, may be amended once if the Petitioners' Committee files a Notice of Intention to Amend it, with the City Clerk within two (2) days, after receiving a copy of his certificate, and files a supplementary petition upon additional papers within ten (10) days, after receiving the copy of such certificate.

Such supplementary petition.
shall comply with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Section 8.03. The City Clerk shall complete a certificate as to the sufficiency of the petition, as amended, after the fees are paid, and verification received, and will promptly send a copy of such certificate to the Petitioners' Committee, by certified or registered mail as in the case of an original petition.

If a petition or amended petition is certified sufficient, or if a petition or amended petition is certified insufficient, and the Petitioners' Committee does not elect to amend or request City Council review, under subsection (b) of this section, within the time required, the City Clerk shall promptly present his certificate to the City Council and the certificate shall then be a final determination as to the sufficiency of the petition.

(b) City Council Review. If a petition has been certified insufficient and the Petitioners' Committee does not file notice of intention to amend it, or if an amended petition has been certified insufficient, the committee may, within two (2) days after receiving the copy of such certificate, file a request that it be reviewed by the City Council. The City Council shall review the certificate at its next meeting following the filing of such request and approve or disapprove it. The City Council's determination shall then be a final determination as to the sufficiency of the petition.

(c) Court Review; New Petition. A final determination as to the sufficiency of a petition shall be subject to court review. A final determination of insufficiency, even if sustained upon court review, shall not prejudice the filing of a new petition for the same purpose.

Sec. 8.05. Referendum Petitions; Suspension of Effect of Ordinance.

When a Referendum Petition is filed with the City Clerk, the ordinance sought to be reconsidered shall be suspended from taking effect. Such suspension shall terminate when:

(1) There is a final determination of insufficiency of the petition, or

(2) The Petitioners' Committee withdraws the petition, or

(3) The City Council repeals the ordinance, or

(4) If a majority of the qualified electors voting on a referred Ordinance vote against it, it shall be considered repealed upon certification of the election results.

Sec. 8.06. Action on Petitions.

(a) Action by City Council. When an initiative or Referendum Petition has been finally determined sufficient, the City Council shall promptly consider the proposed initiative ordinance in the manner provided in Article II, or reconsider the referred ordinance by voting its repeal.
If the City Council fails to adopt a proposed initiative ordinance, without any change in substance, within sixty (60) days or fails to repeal the referred ordinance within thirty (30) days after the date the Petition was finally determined sufficient, it shall submit the proposed or referred ordinance to the voters of the city.

(b) Submission to Voters. The vote of the city on a proposed or referred ordinance shall be held not less than thirty (30) days and not later than one (1) year from the date of the final City Council vote thereon.

If no regular City election is to be held within the period prescribed in this subsection, the City Council shall provide for a special election; otherwise, the vote shall be held at the same time as such regular election, except that the City Council may in its discretion provide for a special election at an earlier date within the prescribed period.

Copies of the proposed or referred ordinance shall be made available at the polls.

(c) Withdrawal of Petitions. An Initiative or Referendum Petition may be withdrawn, at any time prior to the fifteenth (15th) day preceding the day scheduled for a vote of the city, by filing with the City Clerk, a request for withdrawal, signed by at least four (4) members of the Petitioners' Committee. Upon filing of such request the petition shall have no further force or effect and all proceedings thereon shall be terminated.

Sec. 8.07. Results of Election.

(a) Initiative. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on a proposed initiative ordinance vote in its favor, it shall be considered adopted upon certification of the election results, and shall be treated in all respects, in the same manner as ordinances of the same kind adopted by the City Council. If conflicting ordinances are approved at the same election, the one (1) receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.

(b) Referendum. If a majority of the qualified electors voting on a referred ordinance vote against it, it shall be considered repealed upon certification of the election results.

ARTICLE IX. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 9.01. Personal Financial Interest.

Any city officer or Employee, who has a substantial financial interest, direct or indirect, or by reason of ownership of stock in any corporation, in any contract with the city or in the sale of any land, material, supplies or services, to the city or to a contractor supplying the City shall make known that interest and shall refrain from voting upon or otherwise participating in his capacity as a city officer or employee, in the making of such sale, or in the making or performance of such contract.
Any city officer or employee who, willfully conceals such a substantial financial interest or, willfully violates the requirements of this section, shall be guilty of malfeasance in office or position and shall forfeit his office or position.

Violation of this section with the knowledge, express or implied, of the person or corporation contracting with or making a sale to the city, shall render the contract or sale voidable by the City Manager or the City Council.

Notwithstanding, the general language in this paragraph, all city officers and employees shall explicitly adhere to the provisions of Part III. Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees. Chapter 112 of the Florida Statutes.

Sec. 9.02. Prohibitions.

(a) Activities Prohibited:

(1) No person shall be appointed to or removed from, or in any way favored or discriminated against, with respect to any city position or appointive city administrative office, because of race, color, sex, political or religious opinions or affiliations.

(2) No person shall willfully make any false statement, certificate, mark, rating or report in regard to any test, certification or appointment under the personnel provisions of this Charter or the rules and regulations made thereunder, or in any manner commit or attempt to commit any fraud preventing the impartial execution of such provisions, rules and regulations.

(3) No person who seeks appointment or promotion with respect to any city position or appointive city administration office shall directly or indirectly give, render or pay any money, service or other valuable thing to any person for, or in connection with, his test, appointment, proposed appointment, promotion or proposed promotion.

(4) While no specific restrictions are placed on the political activities of city employees during off duty hours, it is the intent of the Charter to require its employees to conform to the provisions and restrictions established by the Florida Statutes.

(b) Penalties. Any person who, by himself or with others, willfully violates any of the provisions of paragraphs one (1) through four (4) shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year, or both.

Sec. 9.03. Charter Amendment.

(a) Proposal of Amendment. Amendments to this Charter may be framed and proposed:

(1) In the manner provided by law, or

(2) By Ordinance of the City Council containing the full text of the proposed amendment and effective upon adoption, or
(3) By report of the Charter Ordinance Advisory Board created by ordinance, or
(4) By the voters of the city.

Proposal of an amendment by the voters of the city shall be by petition, containing the full text of the proposed amendment and shall be governed by the same procedures and requirements prescribed in Article VIII, for initiative petitions, until such time as a final determination as to the sufficiency of the petition is made, except, that there shall be no limitation as to subject matter, and that the petition must be signed by qualified voters of the city equal in number to at least ten (10) percent of the total number of qualified electors registered to vote at the last regular City election.

The Petitioners' Committee may withdraw the petition at any time before the fifteenth (15th) day immediately preceding the day scheduled for the City vote on the amendment.

(b) Election. Upon delivery to the city Election authorities of the report of a Charter Commission, or delivery by the City Clerk of an adopted ordinance, or a petition finally determined sufficient, proposing an amendment pursuant to subsection (a), the election authorities shall submit the proposed amendment to the voters of the city at an election.

Such election shall be announced by a notice containing the complete text of the proposed amendment and published in one (1) or more newspapers of general circulation as required by Chapter 50 of the Florida Statutes, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the election.

The election shall be held, not less than sixty (60) and not more than one hundred twenty (120) days, after the adoption of the ordinance, or report, or the final determination of sufficiency of the petition proposing the amendment.

If no regular election is to be held within that period, the City Council may provide for a special election on the proposed amendment; otherwise, the holding of a special election shall be within the discretion of the City Council.

The form of ballot shall be as specified in Section 7.05.

(c) Adoption of Amendment. If a majority of the qualified voters, of the city voting upon a proposed Charter Amendment, vote in favor of it, the amendment shall become effective at the time fixed in the amendment, or if no time is therein fixed, thirty (30) days after its adoption by the voters.

(d) The New Port Richey City Council may amend provisions or language out of the Charter which has been judicially construed to be contrary to either the State or Federal Law.

Sec. 9.04. Suits Against the City.

No suit or chancery, or action at law, either ex contractu or ex delicto, of any kind or nature whatsoever, against said city shall be...
instituted after six (6) months from the date such cause of action accrues, and no suit shall be instituted against said city unless a written statement, giving the particulars of the alleged cause of action, containing a Notice of Intention to sue, shall be filed with the Council at least thirty (30) days before the suit, or action, be instituted.

Sec. 9.05. Severability.

If any phrase, sentence, paragraph, subsection or section or provision of this Charter is held invalid, the other provisions remainder of the Charter shall not be affected thereby. If the application of the Charter or any of its provisions to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the application of the Charter and its provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

ARTICLE X. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 10.01. Officers and Employees.

(a) Rights and Privileges Preserved. Nothing in this Charter except as otherwise specifically provided shall affect or impair the rights or privileges of persons who are city officers or employees at the time of its adoption, except as otherwise provided for in this Charter.

(b) Continuance of Office or Employment. Except as specifically provided by this Charter, if at the time this Charter takes full effect, a city administrative officer or employee holds any office or position which is, or can be abolished by, or under this Charter, he shall continue in such office or position until the taking effect of some specific provisions under this Charter directing that he vacate the office or position.

(c) Personnel System. An employee holding a city position at the time this Charter takes full effect, who was serving in that same or a comparable position at the time of its adoption, shall not be subject to competitive tests as a condition of continuance in the same position, but in all other respects shall be subject to the personnel system provided for in section 4.02(c).

Sec. 10.02. Department, Offices and Agencies.

(a) Transfer of Powers. If a city department, office or agency is abolished by this Charter, the powers and duties given it by law shall be transferred to the city department, office or agency, designated in this Charter, or if the Charter makes no provision, designated by the City Council.

(b) Property and Records. All property, records and equipment of any department, office or agency existing when this Charter is adopted shall be transferred to the department, office or agency assuming its powers and duties, but in the event that the powers or duties are to be discontinued, or divided between units, or in the event that any conflict arises regarding a transfer, such property, records or equipment shall be transferred to one (1) or more departments, offices or agencies designated by the City Council in accordance with this Charter.

Sec. 10.03. Pending Matters.

All rights, claims, actions, orders, contracts, and legal or administrative proceedings shall continue, except as modified, pursuant to the provisions of this Charter, and in each case shall be maintained, carried on or dealt with by the city department, office or agency appropriate under this Charter.

Sec. 10.04. State and Municipal Laws.

In General. All city ordinances, resolutions, orders, and regulations which are in force when this Charter becomes fully effective are repealed to the extent that they are inconsistent or interfere with the effective operations of this Charter or of ordinances or resolutions adopted pursuant thereto.

To the extent that the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida permit, all laws relating to or affecting this city or its agencies, officers, or employees, which are in force when this Charter becomes fully effective, are superseded to the extent that they are inconsistent or interfere with the effective operation of this Charter or of ordinances or resolutions adopted pursuant thereto.

Sec. 10.05. Schedule.

(a) First Election. At the time of its adoption, this Charter shall be in effect to the extent necessary in order that the first election of members of the City Council may be conducted in accordance with the provisions of this Charter. The first election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in December, 1982.

(b) (a) Time of Taking Full Effect. This Charter shall be in full effect for all purposes ten (10) days from the date and time of the approval of the charter amendment by referendum.

Sec. 10.06. Corporate Boundaries.

The corporate boundaries of the City of New Port Richey shall remain fixed and established as they exist on the date this Charter takes effect, provided that the city shall have the power to change its boundaries in the manner prescribed by law. The corporate limits of the city are described in Appendix A to this Charter which is incorporated herein.
